

CALGARY NATIONS CUP

Davinder Singh Kajla Memorial Trophy

The Calgary Nations Cup tournament started in Calgary, Alberta in 2006 in memory of the late Davinder Singh Kajla. It has since been held annually with great success.

It is an opportunity to recognize the cultural diversity that exists locally within the sport of soccer. This tournament provides a unique concept of grouping players based on their ethnic backgrounds and countries of origin, creating an exciting atmosphere that provides a stage for people throughout the community to express their pride in their heritage.
