

Information Sheet
Youth Registration Options
For Individuals aged 16 and 17

CUSA Rules and Regulations

2.3. A player must be 16 years of age or older to be eligible to play in CUSA.

2.4. Players under 18 years of age are eligible to play in both CUSA and youth programs providing they sign with the youth first.

2.4.1. The youth player and their guardian will be required to sign an information sheet. This form shall be required the first time the youth player registers within CUSA, not annually.

2.4.2. Youth players must have the signature of a legal guardian on the player's waiver form.

Alberta Soccer Association Rules:

Rule 4

B iii (d) A youth player may register with, and play for, both a youth team and a senior team, and maintain his eligibility to compete in both youth and senior provincials provided he has first registered with a youth team. However, when a youth player has first signed with a Senior team, there will be no eligibility to sign with or transfer to a youth team. Should a youth player who has signed for both a youth and a senior team see both his youth and senior teams qualify for National Championships, then that player must go to the youth National Championship.

B iii (f) Subject to agreement between Youth and Senior Leagues within a District, a youth player, duly registered with a youth team within that District, may play, for developmental purposes, an unlimited number of games within the Senior League within that District without affecting his youth status, or eligibility for Youth Provincials;

C i A youth player shall mean an amateur who has not attained his eighteenth (18th) birthday before the 1st of January in the current year of his application for registration;

Rule 6

B) Any registered youth players playing for a senior team must be recorded on league game sheets with a notation of juvenile status and the senior team must have a letter of approval from the coach of the youth team.
